Virginia law authorizes health care providers to test patients for HIV, Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C antibodies when a health care provider is exposed to the blood or other bodily fluids of a patient in a manner which may transmit these viruses. In the event of such an exposure, you will be deemed to have consented to such testing and release of test results to the health care provider who was exposed. You will be informed before your blood is tested and given the results of the tests. Positive tests are required to be reported to the Virginia Department of Health.
